

Two Exhibitions in County Museum to Feature Pop Art

Pop art will be spotlighted in two exhibitions scheduled to open Wednesday, July 24, at the County Museum in Exposition Park.

There will be a reception and preview for the members of the County Museum of Art on Tuesday, July 23, beginning at 8 p.m., hosted by the Contemporary Art Council, sponsor of the two exhibitions.

Through Aug. 25 museumgoers will be able to see "Six Painters and the Object" and "Six More." The former features 33 paintings done in New York by six artists in the area of pop art; the latter comprises 34 paintings by six artists living and working in California.

Source of Imagery
According to James Elliott, director of fine arts, Los Angeles County Museum of Art, pop art draws its material from such familiar sources as comic strips, film magazines, posters and flags.

These signs and objects of mass production are used by the artists as a source of imagery.

"Six Painters and the Object" was selected by Lawrence Alloway, curator of the

More Than $1800 Worth of Jewelry Stolen from Home

More than $1800 worth of jewelry was stolen in the burglary of an Encino home.

Police said a $500 bracelet, $124 sapphire ring set, $250 gold watch and other miscellaneous items were stolen from the home of Dorothy J. Myers at 17611 Bullock St., Encino.

An investigation revealed the burglar entered the home by ripping open a screen door.

The museum is open daily except Mondays from 10 to 5. Admission is free. Special tours of the exhibitions will be conducted by the Docent Council of the Los Angeles

Association, Union Sign Valley Refuse Contract

The San Fernando Valley Refuse Removal Association and the public health and welfare, we are gratified by the agreement with the Valley General Utility Drivers' Local 396.

This unprecedented agreement, consummated after four months of discussions, marks the first time a complete settlement has been concluded between refuse removal management and labor without a strike or even a threat of a strike, it was announced.

"Because punctual refuse
